August 6th: August 6th sees an important festival in our Church's year – the Feast of the Transfiguration (see pages 16 and 17 for more information). But August 6th is also the date of another anniversary – the dropping of an atomic bomb on Hiroshima in 1945, followed three days later by another atomic bomb on Nagasaki. The first bomb is estimated to have killed up to 180,000 people and the second between 50,000 and 100,000 people. These unimaginable events were justified by the theory that had the bombs not been dropped the war would have gone on much longer and even more lives would have been lost. Seventy seven years later it's easy to sit in judgement – but with yet another war raging and thousands more lives being lost we need not to judge but to work for peace and pray with all our hearts, minds and strength for peace in the world. And maybe we could buy a Bible for a Ukrainian soldier (see page 22) - donations to the Bible Society would be welcome -

Rest and work: August sees many of us taking holidays to get some well-earned rest from working. But what is the biblical relationship between rest and work? The Bible shows us that we are to work from rest, not rest from work. How is this working out in our current experience?

When God created human beings on the 6th day, the next full day was a day of rest before the work began: 'Then God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it He rested from all the work of creating that He had done.' (Genesis 2:3). Sunday is a day of rest at the beginning of the week.

Jesus lived out this rhythm of rest and work in His own ministry: 'Very early in the morning, Jesus got up and went off to a solitary place, where He prayed' He then told His disciples: 'Let us go somewhere else so that I can preach there also. That is why I have come.' (Mark 1:35-38).

Here is a rhythm for our own lives: 'I am the vine; you are the branches.

If you remain in Me and I in you, you will bear much fruit' (John 15:5). Our work/fruitfulness arises out of the time we abide/rest in Jesus. He will then show us what aspects of our lives need pruning: 'while every branch that does bear fruit He prunes so that it will be even more fruitful.' (2). Let's use this month to reflect on how this pattern is working in our lives:

 \cdot Are we spending enough time 'abiding' in Jesus?

- \cdot Are we putting our energies into the right balance of rest and work?
- \cdot Are there unproductive areas of our lives and churches that need pruning?

And finally ... If you are travelling on holiday have safe journeys. I hope you have a restful, peaceful and refreshing Summer.

With love and prayers

Jean

Councillor Armer reported as follows: The grassed area at the Bryce Institute has now been cut back; it was left until July, which is beneficial to pollinators. There is a request to plant some native bulbs and the Church would also like to do this. (This will be an agenda item for the next meeting - to consider purchasing some native bulbs)

She wondered if the Parish Council could do anything about the increase in second homes. Councillor Bell confirmed that SLDC has a policy regarding this and it is going through the motions now. The Clerk will write a letter to SLDC as he has done for other Councils with a similar issue.

She asked if CCC could collect and take the grass away after roadside cuttings. This would reduce the nutrient levels on verges and help wildflowers. Councillor Collins will be approached about this.

Living Memorial: There is a firm interest in this venture, proposed by Mr Geoffrey Marvin but it was felt that it is not a project the Council could undertake at this moment, due to having so many vacant seats. It will become an agenda item again when some new Councillors are co-opted.

Community Plan: Councillor Tondeur has been in touch with those who have set up the Staveley Community Plan; there, free meals were offered in order to encourage residents to attend meetings in preparation for the plan, and to give their views. Survey Monkey was also used to collect views digitally. From data gathered working groups were then set up. It was agreed to ask if representatives from Staveley would attend a meeting to explain the process they have gone through; other stakeholders will be invited.

Handy person scheme: Councillor Tondeur has been in touch with CALC and obtained the relevant details that will enable the Parish Council to employ a handy person, and a local person has been found who is keen to take the job on. It was resolved that there will be a trial period commencing on 1st August 2022.
